

The Resource Pack for 1936 is aimed to support curriculum outcomes at GCSE, Diploma, and A/AS level, in Drama, Theatre Studies, Expressive Arts, English, History and Citizenship. The pack will act as an exclusive insight into the production. The pack is designed with a range of classroom activities for students to engage creatively and analytically with the background, issues and performance of the play with suggestions for further study and reading.

The content of the pack will include:

- Part One Introduction
 - Synopsis
 - Characters

- Part Two Background
 - Germany in the 1930s
 - The History of the Olympics
 - America in the 1930s
 - The 1936 Olympics

- Part Three Themes and Issues
 - The Olympics and Controversy
 - Propaganda and the Media

- Part Four The Production
 - Playwrights notes Historical Facts vs Fiction
 - Rehearsal Process
 - Interviews with cast and creative team

- Part Five Further Study
 - Exercises for the classroom
 - Questions on the production
 - Further reading
 - Glossary
 - Bibliography

To access the full version of the Resource Pack contact the ATTIC OFFICE on 020 8640 8600 or via email info@attictheatrecompany.com